Defeated Candidate for

Return to Good Old American Conditions, Not So Much
Speed Is Recommended.

Wednesday's weekly meeting and luncheon of the Rotary club in the private dining room of Hotel Tulsa was an Armistice week meeting. It was held by J. B. Graham, Clark Field, J. W. Lewis of Tulsa, and John P. Miller of Chicago, all pertaining to the importance of Americanism—of perpetuating the spirit of peace on earth and good will toward men.

During his talk Graham deplored the tendency on the part of Americans to forget the causes for which they fought and prayed prior to the signing of the Armistice—the spirit of forethought and the apparent lack of interest in campaigns which have for their object the relief of distress.

"Back to normalcy is an individual problem," he said. "If the time has again come in our lives when we can throw off the pettiness and unite without selfish personal or political ambitions to solve our problems, if the hour is here when service will supplant profits in our first thoughts, if we can stop our wild rush for personal pleasures to devote some thought to the necessities of others, if we who are paid to labor can find pleasure in rendering honest service for honest pay and if the employer will do his part to deserve such service, if we have again come to the time when we can spend less than we earn and stop mortgaging our future, if we can again distinguish between luxuries and necessities and gracefully accept the inevitable readjustment from a spending spree to normal honest conditions, if we will be content with our lives the Golden Rule and live Rotary every hour and every day, then we will obtain normalcy gradually and gracefully. If we can't do these things we can expect the bumps we will get."

It is fitting, I feel, that Armistice day should come right after we have settled our national govern-

Prominent Lawyer Comes to Cosden Company Here

Announcement was made Tuesday by the Cosden company that J. C. Denton of Muskogee had been added to its legal department as assistant to Judge Ralph E. Campbell, chief counsel. Mr. Denton is one of the best known lawyers in eastern Oklahoma, having first begun the practice of law at Nowata, then moving to Muskogee in 1908 to become assistant United States attorney under W. J. Gregg. He retired from that office to become a republican candidate for congress in the original second district, and then formed a partnership with Frank Lee with whom he was associated in the United States attorney's office. Denton will enter upon his new duties next Monday and will move his family to Tulsa immediately.

ment for the next four years. It is fitting that one of those who went down to defeat, should speak here today, for it gives me an opportunity to pledge myself and to urge those who accompanied me into defeat to throw off the mantle of partisanship and take up the problems of life in a constructive and co-operative way.

"It is high time that we unite as we did in 1918. We have social, governmental and business problems which we must solve and which we can solve without hurt or injury to our nation or ourselves if we but meet them with the spirit of self-sacrifice and unity with which we met the greater problems of 1918. Let us make Armistice day a pledge, that we may deserve in some measure the peace we have won."

measure at least the $8,000 American lives lost before Armistice day became a day of remembrance in our lives. Let us not only have peace on earth, but also good will toward men."

Graham declared the "plant a tree" campaign of the American Legion had not met with a hearty response, as it should have received. Clark Field asserted that there should be closer co-operation between employer and employee, so each might know more of the other's problems.

MEAT INJURIOUS TO THE KIDNEYS

Take a Tablespoonful of Salts If Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers.

We are a nation of meat eaters and our blood is filled with uric acid, says a well-known authority, who warns us to be constantly on guard against kidney trouble.

The kidneys do their utmost to free the blood of this irritating acid, but become weak from the overwork, they get sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and thus the waste is retained in the blood to poison the entire system.

When your kidneys ache and feel like lumps of lead, and you have stinging pains in the back or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or the bladder is irritable, obliging you to seek relief during the night, when you have severe headaches, nervous and dizzy spells, sleeplessness, acid stomach or rheumatism in bad weather, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in urine so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending urinary and bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, and nobody can make a mistake by taking a little occasionally to keep the kidneys clean and active.—Adv.

"it's more like a Smoke!"

There you have Spur's big reason in a nutshell. It's what an American Legion man said after he had puffed a Spur for a moment or two.

He knew cigarettes. Found how comforting a good one is. Had 16 months in France. And he knew what he was talking about when he said:

"More Like a SMOKE!"

That's because you can taste the good tobacco in Spurs. You get the aroma of a new and delicious blend of the finest leaf grown in Turkey, fine Burley and other home-grown tobaccos.

Unmarred by starch because the seam is crimped not pasted.

Longer and sweeter in the smoking—slower in the burning. Fresh and fragrant as you open the pack, because it's triple-wrapped.

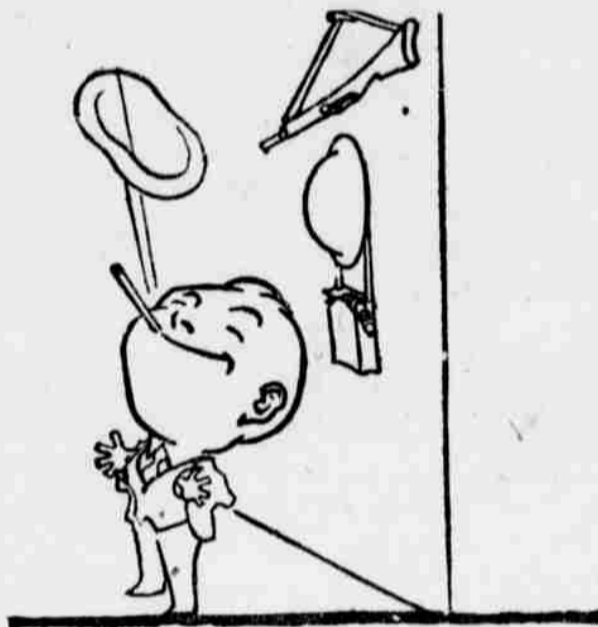

Priced to be popular and packaged to be select.

See for yourself—"more like a SMOKE."
